

Port Norfolk Civic League January 5, 2012

Meeting was called to order by Dorothy Parker at 7:01 pm in the Port Norfolk Recreation Center.

New neighbors were welcomed. A thank you was given to community for their participation in the Home Tour. Yvonne Learner and Carolyn Watt were thanked for their long term service to the community.

New officers were announced and Councilman Steve Heretick swore in the new board.

President: Tom Getz
V. President: Amy O'Donnell
Recording Sec: Doti Parker
Corresp. Sec: Nicole Macaulay
Treasurer: Stephanie Herman

A motion was made by Tom Getz to waive the monthly committee reports; it was seconded by Sharon Rich. No Vote was taken.

Tom introduced Police Chief Edward Hargis. The Chief spoke of what has been accomplished in recent years, the goals for the coming year, and the immediate focus of the Portsmouth police force. He told us that the main crime in our neighborhood was destruction of property, larceny and fraud. He warned us to lock our door when leaving home and not to leave anything visible in our cars. If you see a crime in progress, call 911. When you call about drug dealer do not expect something to happen immediately, it will take a while to investigate.

Several people complained about the dispatchers. Prostitution, Drugs, Gangs and Domestic Violence were also discussed.

President Getz announced there would be a monthly meeting of the Neighborhood Watch beginning January 19th at 7:00 at the Port Norfolk Recreation Center. The meetings will be held every 3rd Thursday.

Yvonne Learner announced that we made $1139.00 on the Home Tour.

The raffle was held.

Meeting was not adjourned but ended at 8:50.
